NISCL partners with Academy of Learning to Expand Education Pathways

National Institute of Supply Chain Leaders (NISCL) and Academy of Learning have reached an agreement that will provide an efficient path for graduates of the school's Logistics and Supply Chain Management program to pursue professional designations offered by NISCL at a faster rate.

Today's global market demands skilled practitioners to support the management of complex supply chains. NISCL programs meet this need and equips those seeking to launch or accelerate their career with the necessary skills to work at a management or executive level.

Many individuals find having industry-specific certifications helps them progress within their career and contribute at a strategic level within their company.

"It's an honour for Academy of Learning to partner with the experts at NISCL to provide our Supply Chain Management graduates with a professional pathway to earn their certifications. Our institutions have a shared commitment to doing everything possible to prepare our students for career excellence through the highest quality of supply chain education," says Sunita Vyas, President and CEO.

"At NISCL our brand promise is to be Canada's largest community of supply chain professionals, committed to supply chain excellence. The supply chain profession has never been more vital to the progress of the Canadian economy and as the profession continues to be in the spotlight, we are on a steadfast path to deliver on our purpose: to promote awareness of the important role of supply chain management, as well to professionalize the industry," says Himani Dureja, VP of Education and Corporate Engagement.

As a graduate of the Logistics and Supply Chain Management program, if you have obtained a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 (70%), you will be exempted from the following NISCL courses, wherever they are program requirements

- Procurement Strategy and Supply Management
- Operations and Process Design Management
- Global Strategic Sourcing
- Public Sector Supply Chain Management
- Effective Leadership
- Importance of Communication
- Risk Management
- Ethics: Social and Environmental Responsibility
- Diploma: Inventory Management
