SCMAO partners with George Brown College to Expand Pathways to the CSCMP Designation
Supply Chain Management Association Ontario (SCMAO) and George Brown College have reached an agreement that will provide an efficient path for graduates of the school's Business Administration – Supply Chain and Operations Management Diploma program to pursue their Certified Supply Chain Management Professional (CSCMP) designation – at a faster rate.

Today's global market demands skilled practitioners to support the management of complex supply chains. SCMAO's Designation Program meets this need and equips those seeking to launch or accelerate their career with the necessary skills to work at a management or executive level.

Many designation holders find having the designation helps them progress within their career and contribute at a strategic level within their company.

"The Centre for Business is happy to announce a significant partnership between Supply Chain Management Association Ontario (SCMAO) and George Brown College, which will provide a streamlined pathway for graduates of our Business Administration – Supply Chain and Operations Management Diploma program to pursue the prestigious Certified Supply Chain Management Professional (CSCMP) designation. In today's ever-evolving global market, skilled supply chain practitioners are in high demand, and SCMAO's Designation Program equips professionals with essential skills for management and executive roles.

This collaboration underscores our joint commitment to enhancing awareness of supply chain management's importance and professionalizing the industry through the CSCMP Designation, widely recognized as Canada's leading certification for supply chain professionals. We celebrate this remarkable opportunity for our students to thrive in the dynamic field of supply chain management."

"At SCMAO our brand promise is to be Canada's largest community of supply chain professionals, committed to supply chain excellence. The supply chain profession has never been more vital to the progress of the Canadian economy and as the profession continues to be in the spotlight, we are on a steadfast path to deliver on our purpose: to promote awareness of the important role of supply chain management, as well to professionalize the industry through the CSCMP Designation - Canada's leading designation for supply chain professionals." -says Himani Dureja, VP of Education and Corporate Engagement.

As a graduate of the Business Administration – Supply Chain and Operations Management Diploma program, if you obtained a minimum cumulative GPA of 60%, you will be exempted from the following CSCMP program components:

- Module 1: Foundations of Supply Chain Management
- Module 2: Procurement Strategy and Supply Management
- Module 4: Operations and Process Design Management
