SCMAO partners with York University's Asian Business Management Program to Expand Pathways to the CSCMP Designation

Supply Chain Management Association Ontario (SCMAO) and York University's Asian Business Management Program (ABMP) have reached an agreement that will provide an efficient path for graduates to complete their Certified Supply Chain Management Professional (CSCMP) designation at a faster rate.

Today's global market demands skilled practitioners to support the management of complex supply chains. SCMAO's Designation Program meets this need and equips those seeking to launch or accelerate their career with the necessary skills to work at a management or executive level.

Many designation holders find having the designation helps them progress within their career and contribute at a strategic level within their company.

"We are excited about this collaboration with SCMAO. Not only does it empower newcomers pursuing the designation, but it also holds the promise of positively impacting Ontario. By nurturing a pool of skilled professionals, we aim to cultivate individuals ready to make significant contributions in the dynamic field of supply chain management."

*Elena Caprioni, Program Director,
Asian Business and Management Program, York University*

"At SCMAO our brand promise is to be Canada's largest community of supply chain professionals, committed to supply chain excellence. The supply chain profession has never been more vital to the progress of the Canadian economy and as the profession continues to be in the spotlight, we are on a steadfast path to deliver on our purpose: to promote awareness of the important role of supply chain management, as well to professionalize the industry through the CSCMP Designation - Canada's leading designation for supply chain professionals."

- Himani Dureja, VP of Education and Corporate Engagement.

As a graduate of the Asian Business Management Program, if you obtained a minimum result of 70%, you will be exempted from the following CSCMP program components:

- Workshop 2: Art of Negotiation
- Workshop 3: Importance of Communication
- Workshop 4: Contract Management and Competitive Bidding
